

Bernadette NicGabhann

Fiddle and Irish Language

Bernadette NicGabhann has travelled the world playing and promoting the Irish traditional arts. A fiddle player from County Meath, Bernadette has toured with Michael Flatleys Lord of the Dance and, more recently, with the trans-Atlantic band NicGaviskey, who released their debut album 'Home away from Home' in 2011.

When not touring, Bernadette is a full time Irish language secondary school teacher in Ireland. She developed her intensive educational program, 'Taste of Irish' Blas Gaeilge, to highlight the links between the language and the music, and to expose Irish enthusiasts to the basic formations of the Irish language.
