

Michelle Foy

Fiddle, Flute, Tin Whistle, Irish Language

Michelle teaches fiddle in Comhaltas Douglas, Cork and tin whistle as part of the Comhaltas Outreach Programme in Ballyvolane, Cork. She has also been teaching fiddle, flute and tin whistle in Julianstown, Co. Meath, for the past 5 years. She was a fiddle teacher in the Seamus Ennis Centre, Naul, Co. Dublin for two years (2011-2013) and has worked as a Cinnire (leader) in the Gaeltacht. She has many years of experience teaching at different workshops and festivals across Ireland and has performed onstage with many of Ireland's leading musicians, including Matt Cranitch, Jackie Daly, Seamus Tansey, Peter Horan and Gerry Harrington. Michelle is currently studying at University College Cork (UCC) for a B.A. in Music and Irish.