

Natasha Sheehy

Button Accordion, Tin Whistle, Tenor Banjo, Bodhrán, Céili Drums, Uilleann Pipes

Natasha is a multi-instrumentalist and a member of the National Folk Theatre of Ireland's community cast for 10 seasons. She teaches traditional Irish music in one-to-one classes, group classes and primary school classrooms. She conducts her primary school tin whistle classes in both English and Irish and focuses on students having positive experiences with the music and developing an appreciation for the tradition. She currently teaches Bodhrán, Céili Drums, Button Accordion, Uilleann Pipes and Tenor Banjo in private lessons to both children and adults. She oversees two Grupa Ceoils in the Templeglantine branch of Comhaltas with her 12-15 group winning at county, provincial and All-Ireland levels in 2012.
